ARTICLE VIII SELECTION

8.1 SELECTION RULES

- Priority for selection
- Eligibility (participation points, dues and match fees paid)
- Performance and skill
- Conditioning

8.2 ELIGIBILITY

- Eligibility for selection to first or "A" side will be determined by the attainment and maintenance of Selection Points and currency with dues and match fees.
- Selection points are required for any player to be eligible for consideration for "A" side selection.
- All players will begin their season with zero selection points regardless of what point in the season they join the club

- It shall require a period of not less than two weeks for any player to attain enough selection points to be considered for "A" side selection
- Failure to meet financial obligations to the club (dues and match fees) shall render any candidate for selection ineligible
- Selection points will be given the following values

Training	4 points
Training "Drive by"	1 point
Match Play	5 points (home)
Match Play	6 points (away)
Late to training	Judgment call for selectors

Bonus points may be awarded by selectors for exceptional or above average participation in club activities:

Performance/Participation	1 point
Man of the Match	1 point
Second Match	2 points
Third half	1 point
1st. career of team try	1 point

Exceptionally meritorious service in administrative, non-playing, non-financial role may result in the award of a bonus point for selection

8.3 MISCELLANEOUS

- Injured players attending practice to watch shall receive credit for participation, as previously outlined
- A late arrival to training may receive credit for training from selectors commensurate to the amount of time he was able to contribute
- A player unable to participate in training for whatever reason will receive one point credit for making a "drive-by"
- Selectors making determination for selection may review the previous two weeks of club activity to determine eligibility for new coming players. All players must demonstrate a consistent accumulation of selection points to maintain their eligibility for selection

8.4 EXCEPTIONS

The only exception to this policy shall be on match day, when the club arrives to a fixture and has insufficient eligible players present. The procedures for an ineligible player's selection are as follows:

- A brief explanation of the situation by a selector/coach, in which the specific position vacancy is identified
- Verify that no eligible player is willing or able to play the position
- Match fees are paid
- The team makes a quick, "no discussion" vote

- The man plays if a majority is reached, if not his match fees are refunded and the coach may delegate any eligible player (preferably one of the dissenters) to play the position

8.5 SECOND TEAM "B" SIDE SELECTION

The sole criteria for selection to the "B" side shall be meeting one's financial obligations to the team, however selectors need to consider those players with accumulated points before selecting a "new comer", "home game or fair weather player."
